RESORTS READY FOR OPENING DAY

Added Attractions at Saltair Promise Record-Breaking Season.

SALT PALACE IMPROVED
LAGOON, WANDAMERE AND LIBERTY PARK ATTRACTIVE.

All the amusement parks about town open Decoration day, Thursday, May 30. Every resort is bigger and better, seemingly than last season.

At Saltair 1,000 bath houses will be opened for use Thursday, 700 of them being new ones. A new train is added to the beach service that is model of its kind. The water is about three feet higher than it was last season, and good bathing is to be had in the immediate vicinity of the pavilion. Several new amusement features have been provided by the management, including the completion of a new roller skating rink at a cost of $15,000. The outlook is for a record-breaking season at Saltair.

Salt Palace is going to have a captive balloon this summer. The balloon goes to a height of 1,000 feet, and is to be held by a heavy steel cable. Six people may be carried up at a trip. The theatre has been turned into a palm garden, and the ladies' orchestra of Salt Lake engaged for evening concerts during the summer.

At the Lagoon all the damage done by the windstorm of last fall has been repaired and the resort opens Thursday prettier than last year. Wandamere is ready to open, and Liberty park will be as attractive as ever.

With the opening of the resorts business in town will pick up. The tourist travel is increasing daily. The manager of one of the biggest downtown hotels declared yesterday he has experienced the heaviest trade in the history of his place the past few days.

FEAST OF MUSIC ENJOYED

Rare Entertainment Given by Professor Pedersen's Pupils at All Hallows.

The entertainment given by some of Professor Pedersen's pupils in All Hallows college hall last night was a feast of music. The hall was filled by a select audience and the program was thoroughly appreciated, all the numbers being of unusual merit.

The program was arranged to show in successive order every degree of proficiency in technique and interpretation. All the numbers were greeted with genuine appreciation.

The entire work was represented by the first and last numbers. The first number was an orchestral production, a country by Battiste. The work was beautiful. The "Tramontana," the last number, was an almost perfect rendition in string. In parts it was a revelation.

The remainder of the program was individual work on piano and violin, all showing the highest production in every line of light and heavy composition.

Prizes for exceptional work on band instruments were conferred on Nelson Hogan, cornet; Van Hogan, alto; Roman Hogan, baritone.

The recital will be given again at 8 o'clock on Monday night. The program of those who, having received invitations, were unable to secure tickets of admission.

MRS. LITTLE FOUND GUILTY

Her Crowing Roosters, Which Annoyed Neighbors, Held by Court to Be Nuisance.

Mrs. Alice Little, charged with maintaining a nuisance in keeping a number of crowing roosters on her premises, 515 East First South street, to the annoyance of neighbors, was found guilty in Judge Dana T. Smith's court Friday afternoon. The complaining witness was Dr. T. B. Beatty, who lives next door.

It appeared from the testimony that the roosters were placed under the complainant's windows, and for many months had seriously disturbed the sleep and rest of the family during the later hours of the night and early morning. It also developed that Mrs. Little had procured and kept the roosters and also provided her boys with bugles, which were blown at all hours, for the annoyance of the complainant's family.

The demurrer alleged lack of jurisdiction. He filed an affidavit in which he set forth the fact that he was arrested in the vicinity of McCammon and taken to that place without a warrant; that he was taken from Idaho to Utah without extradition papers, and that he is now being held and deprived of his liberty. The timing of the demurrer was set for May 31.

TELLS HOW TO PREVENT DISEASE

Dr. T. B. Beatty Discusses Public Health Problems at Y. M. C. A.

SCIENCE SHOWS THE WAY
INDIVIDUALS MUST GAIN AND UTILIZE KNOWLEDGE.

Under the title of "Public Health Problems," Dr. T. B. Beatty, secretary of the state board of health, delivered last night in the gymnasium of the Y. M. C. A. a lecture in which he pointed out the duty of citizens in giving heed to modern discoveries of preventable diseases and the application of measures in accordance with them.

"Fully two-thirds of the diseases now destroying human lives," said Dr. Beatty, "are known to be preventable. The problem of their prevention has been solved and the one remaining problem is the education of the individuals composing society to the point of understanding and utilizing these facts."

A series of lantern slides showing the germs of disease were thrown upon the curtain during the lecture. The slides showed the propagation of germs and the manner in which they spread the channels of dissemination and the methods of destruction.

"In need among the list of strictly preventable diseases," continued Dr. Beatty, "are tuberculosis, pneumonia, typhoid fever, diphtheria, scarlet fever, and all other contagious diseases. Pneumonia has become the first in the list of devastating diseases, not less than 200,000 dying of disease in the United States each year. In Utah it heads the list, the death rate being double that of any other disease."

"Tuberculosis is not in the list, there being about 150,000 deaths from it yearly in the United States."

"More than 1,300 deaths occur in Utah from these preventable diseases. The fact is not generally known that pneumonia is a preventable disease, but it is, it is caused by the specific germ in material expectorated during the progress of the disease and finding lodgment in dust, through which and other channels, it is communicated to other persons, in whose respiratory passages they frequently remain for an indefinite period, awaiting the time when, from some exposure, which would ordinarily produce a cold, they gain entrance to the system and pneumonia is the result."

Dr. Beatty discussed the mode of entrance of disease to the system and the origin of the various diseases, saying that disease is transmitted from one human body to another, and then spoke upon the discovery of the germ of diphtheria and its setting forth its life-saving effects.

"Anti-toxin," said the speaker, "has reduced the mortality of diphtheria from 40 to less than 3 per cent, and when injected into a person who has been exposed to diphtheria, will give immunity."

Dr. Beatty set forth the importance of fresh air in habitations and endeavored to show the extent of this simple health-giving measure, which is so frequently ignored by the closing of windows.

BINGHAM STRIKE AT LAST AT END

Nearly Thousand Men Report for Duty on Two Day Shifts and More Are to Come.

ALL IS PEACE AND QUIET
DEPUTY SHERIFFS WITHDRAWN FROM LITTLE TOWN.

Nearly every man who left his work in the plant of the United States smelter at Bingham Junction has returned to work. The places that have not yet been filled will be filled this morning. At 7:30 o'clock yesterday morning 476 men reported for duty; at the time of the 3 o'clock shift 438 were added; presently the entire force of strikers will be at work again.

Thus is finally ended the walkout of smelter employees. It was a victory for mediation and tolerance and calmness. Pursuing a policy of action that always had for its aim a harmonious adjustment, both the company officials and the strikers' committee came to an amicable agreement. It took days to do this; the company lost money by the shutdown; the men lost money through their enforced idleness.

All Is Quiet.

Deputy Sheriff Axel A. Steele called at The Herald office last evening. He said: "There is no sign of trouble at present, not pending. During the time Mr. Butler and I have been in the Junction we have consorted peace. We were assisted in every step by Messrs. Anderson and Beckstead, the regular deputies there and by the special deputies there. We have released twenty strikers, and only the regular force remains on duty at the Junction."

"I wish you would say that we are greatly pleased with the manner in which the 'whites' the union men, have assisted us and made our work easier. The resolutions passed by them today thanking the sheriff's office and its deputies, naturally, is pleasing to us."

Killing to Be Probed.

"The only trouble of account that occurred during the strike was the killing of the Greek, Anast Kozakis. It is most unfortunate that the fatality occurred."

"The sheriff's office has not yet finally decided what it will do in the matter of the Anast Kozakis case. Investigation, but you may rest assured that everything possible will be done to bring about a thorough inquiry."

"We would like you to state, furthermore, that the company's officials and the foremen and the clerks rendered us welcome assistance."

William H. S. Westlake, who for the past year has held responsible positions with the Pennsylvania R. R. in Lehigh and Pittsburgh, Pa., has been engaged by the Salt Lake Security & Trust company as assistant manager of the Safe Deposit Vault Department.

Mr. Westlake came west for his health about two years ago, and until recently has been in charge of the Morris detention school. He finds the climate of Utah invigorating and is greatly impressed with the extensive improvements now going on in Salt Lake. The metropolitan character and service of the new vaults is especially gratifying to one so familiar with similar institutions in the east.
